In 2008, Dhondup Wangchen was arrested for making a documentary on present-day life in Tibet. He is now serving a six-year prison sentence in a labor camp in China. His 28-minute film, "Leaving Fear Behind," has moved audiences around the world and will be shown, followed by a Q&A with Lhamo Tso, Wangchen's wife and the mother of four children. She has traveled extensively to raise awareness of her husband's situation.

Ms. Tsering Lhamo from the Department of Information & International Relations of the Central Tibetan Administration and Mr. Lobsang Nyima, the Chinese Liaison Officer for the Office of Tibet, in Switzerland, will give a talk on "The Importance of Chinese Outreach and the Current Situation Inside Tibet."
